It is the practice of Western Reserve Plastic Surgery, Inc., to collect cosmetic consultation fees at the time of service or to bill your insurance company with regards to any procedure that is considered to be medically necessary, however in the event that said insurance company should deny the claim it becomes the responsibility of the patient to make payment or payment arrangements within 90 days of the insurance companies denial. I authorize the release of any medical information necessary to process my insurance claim. I subsequently authorize payment of medical benefits directly to Western Reserve Plastic Surgery. By signing this agreement I acknowledge the financial responsibility of Western Reserve Plastic surgery and myself.
